The Evolux Changing Table has multiple sections and can be used at four different heights to suit the adult, and has a number of features to extend the life of the product as the child grows.

The bigger changing unit with higher sides can be used for babies up to 15kg, and with swivel wheels, can be easily moved from one room to another. Childhome added a 3-point safety harness with removable crotch so that the baby is safe at all times. Finally, the changing unit can be removed and used separately.
